

INDEX

SERIES OF INTERVIEWS

WITH

CAPTAIN ROLAND W. FAULK, CHC, U.S.N. (retired)

ACLU: (American Civil Liberties Union): see entries under COMPULSORY CHURCH ATTENDANCE: WARREN KAPLAN: JUDGE CORCORAN.
ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES: The chaplain and the use of - discussion,
p. 216-221.
ALGIERS: BB MISSOURI visits, p. 210-213; visit to the French Foreign Legion at Sidi-bel-Abbes, p. 211-213.
ANDERSON, Admiral George: approves of request from N.A.S.
Miramar for paid staff for Navy Relief unit, p. 374.
USS ARIZONA - BB: The memorial at Pearl Harbor to which Chaplain Faulk objected, p. 331-2.
ARNOLD, Rear Admiral Murr Edward: Commandant, 16th Naval District, p. 370; endorses request for paid staff of Navy Relief at Miramar, p. 374.
ASIATIC FLEET: manner in which personnel assigned (1939), p. 45 ff.
ATOM BOMB: p. 139-141.
BAILEY, Captain Burl Leonidas: Commanding Officer of the N.A.S., Miramar, p. 371; Faulk persuaded him to ask the head of Navy Relief for a paid staff, p. 373-4.
BAINBRIDGE TRAINING CENTER: Faulk stationed there, p. 386-7; because request for non-compulsory attendance at chapel at the N.T.C., San Diego - the practice is re-established at Bainbridge Training Center, p. 387-8.
BIRD, Rear Admiral Horace V. (Dickie): served as marshal for the surrender ceremony on the deck of the MISSOURI, p. 146.

BLEDSON, Vice Admiral Albert M: succeeds Admiral Phillips at Guantanamo, p. 250; p. 253.

BOSLET, Chaplain Jack: Senior Chaplain in the MISSOURI - replaced by Faulk, p. 123-4.

BOSSERMAN, Chaplain Elmer: Faulk relieves him (1949) as Chaplain at the Guantanamo Naval Base, p. 246; p. 249.

BRANDLEY, Rear Admiral Prank A. (Buck): Chief of Staff to CincPacFlt., p. 339-40; p.455.

BREMERTON NAVY YARD: Faulk assigned there after he returns to the U.S. (1941), p. 73-4. ff.

BURKE, Chaplain Frank: named by Chief of Chaplains Harp as successor to Faulk in London, p. 298; takes over London post in September 1954, p. 302.

BUSWELL, Reverend J. Oliver: p. 95.

CAHILL, Chaplain Dick: R.C. chaplain whom Faulk takes with him to Bainbridge to set up new training center, p. 257.

CAIMENERA: the special problem there for U.S. Navy, p. 58-9; p.197-8; Faulk protests the existing policy to SecNav, p. 197-8.

CAMERMAN, Chaplain (Father) Joe: Reserve Chaplain on duty at Bremerton Navy Yard (1942), p. 78-9.

CAMPBELL, Rear Admiral Robert L.: in Command of Service Force, Pacific, p. 338; p. 353-5.

CAPERS, Chaplain Hedges: senior chaplain at the San Diego Naval Hospital, p. 458-9; Chief architect of the Clinical Training Program at San Diego, p. 959-60; Faulk counsels him in getting action on the Clinical Training Program in office of the Chief of Chaplains, p. 460-1; opposition from the senior psychiatrist at the Naval Hospital, p. 462-3.

CASUALTY ASSISTANCE CALLS PROGRAM: p. 118.

CAVITE: see entries under 16th NAVAL DISTRICT.

CENTENARY COLLEGE, Shreveport, La, p. 4-5.

CHAPEL CONSTRUCTION: p. 341-2; some examples of overbuilding, p. 342-4; p. 429.

CHAPLAINS CORPS - INDOCTRINATION: description of indoctrination of a new Chaplain in 1937, p. 10-12; after indoctrination, a man is given an acting Chaplain status in the regular navy for three year period, p. 12-13; obstacles to a smooth transition from civilian life, p. 14-15; Faulk spends a month on the CV SARATOGA as a further part of training, p. 15 ff; counseling and realization of its importance, p. 26-7; p. 37-38; p. 100-101.

CHAPLAINS CORPS -PLANNING GROUP: Faulk returns to Washington as officer in charge, p. 180.

CHAPLAINS CORPS - RECRUITING: World War II, p. 82 ff; the V-12 program, p. 88 ff; p. 104-6; p. 111.

CHARACTER EDUCATION PROGRAM: Faulk begins to develop one at Bainbridge Training Center (1950-1); p. 257 ff; Faulk gets permission for a research staff to develop a new curriculum - has Chaplain Jim Kelly head the committee, p. 264 ff; roster of group designated to develop a new curriculum, p. 266-7; p. 284; Faulk recommends to Chaplain Harp that Kelly be given duty in Chief's office - to sell Character Education Program to the Navy, p. 268-9; the refining process employed on the new materials, p. 269-70; p. 271-2; details on the materials developed by the Committee at Bainbridge, p. 275-6; the changeover to the Moral Leadership Program, p. 332.

CHARACTER GUIDANCE PROGRAM: an early version as Faulk developed it at San Diego (1946), p. 224. see CHARACTER EDUCATION PROGRAM for additional entries on this subject.

USS CHESTER - CA: Faulk joins the CHESTER (1938), p. 40.

CHIEF OF CHAPLAINS: Faulk called to Washington as assistant in Chief of Chaplain's office, p. 81 ff; takes over the recruiting desk, p. 82-84; p. 86-7; the V-12 program, p.88 ff; Faulk has the logistics desk also, p. 92; a Congressional appropriation (the first) for the work of the Corps, p. 93 ff; conducting funerals at Arlington, p. 117 ff; wedding ceremonies, p. 119-120; Faulk accused on several occasions of trying to usurp authority of the Chief - his explanation, p. 309-310; Chief drawn into the struggle over compulsory church attendance when Faulk addresses a letter to the Secretary of the Navy, p. 393; p. 423.

CHIEF OF CHAPLAINS - STATUS: Officer Personnel Act of 1947, p. 174-8; p. 179-180; the Annual Report to SecNav, signed by Chaplain Dreith, p. 180 ff; Chief of Chaplains not mentioned in Navy Regulations, p. 182; Chaplain Frank Garrett initiates action to put his office under SecNav, p. 183 ff; Faulk completes study on status of Chief of Chaplains, p. 423.

CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE: Magazine opposed to V-12 Program for education of Chaplains, p. 89-91; Faulk protests vigorously to the Editor, p. 90; p. 92.

CHRISTIAN CENTURY: Church magazine opposed to the V-12 program for training chaplains, p. 89; p. 91.

CINC NELM: p. 287-8; p. 291.

CINC SOUTH: Commander, NATO Forces, Southern Europe, p. 291-2.

CIRCUIT RIDING CHAPLAINCY: p. 357 ff.

COMPULSORY CHURCH ATTENDANCE: Faulk insists that practice of compulsory attendance by discontinued for recruits at Newport, p. 255; Bainbridge, p. 262-3; Faulk's discussion of this entire subject and the progress of efforts to declare illegal - through channels of the Navy and in the Federal Courts, p. 381-413; Faulk's enumeration of his reasons why he thought the practice was wrong, p. 383-5; Faulk and Chaplain Glyn Jones decide to make Compulsory attendance at the N.T.C., San Diego an issue, p. 387-8; the letter to the Secretary of the Navy - prepared by four chaplains, p. 390-2; the endorsement of Vice Admiral Smedberg, p. 392; Faulk addresses letter to Secretary of Defense (May 26, 1964), p. 395; Faulk tries for action through his church (Methodist, South), p. 396-7; he takes issue to the Board of Social Concerns of the Methodist Church, p. 397; Jones meets Executive Secretary of the ACLU and persuades him to take up issue, p. 398; legal battle fully joined in 1970 with suit of Cadet Anderson et al against Secretary of Defense, p. 399 ff; decision in the U.S. District Court, p. 399; U.S. Court of Appeals, p. 400; Supreme Court denies government a writ of certiorari (Oct. 27, 1972), p. 400; resulting order of Judge Corcoran in District Court, p. 401-2; the Kaplan letter to all interested parties, p. 402-6; the Memorandum of Secretary of Defense, p. 407; Secretary of the Navy Memo to the Navy, p. 408; the Brief (amicus curiae) of the Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs, p. 410; the Brief of the General Commission on Chaplain's (amicus curiae), p. 410; letter of Chief of Chaplains Frank Garrett to Faulk (Jan. 11, 1973), p. 411-12; reply of Faulk, p. 412-13.

CORCORAN: Judge H. F.: Presiding judge, U.S. District Court - at trial on compulsory church attendance, p. 399-400; his order as result of Supreme Court denial of writ of certiorari, p. 401.

COUNSELING: Importance of this aspect of the Chaplain's work, p. 26-7; use of the Red Cross and the Navy Relief Society, p. 27-8; the backing of the officer personnel on board ship for the role of the chaplain in counseling, p. 29-30.

DANIELS, The Hon. Josephus: names the first Chief of Chaplains in the Navy - his concept that of a Methodist Bishop in the Southern Church, p. 173.

DELANO, Captain Harvey: skipper of the BB IDAHO (1937), p. 24.

DE MINIMIS CURAT LEX (the law does not deal with trifles): a legal doctrine which at first stood in way of a successful suit in court against compulsory church attendance, p. 398.

DENMARK: p. 301-2; reaction of the Danes to consequences of basing foreign troops on their soil, p. 350.

DOLMA BOCHI PALACE: p. 202; p. 205.

DORNIN, Rear Admiral Marshall Edgar (Mush): Commandant, Eleventh Naval District, p. 378; p. 455; p. 464.

DREITH, CHAPLAIN FLOYD: Chief of Chaplains, p. 180-1; on Plans and Policy desk in headquarters - wanted disciplinary action against Faulk for his strong letter to Chief of Chaplains, p. 300; letter of Faulk to Dreith as Chief of Chaplains (Sept. 24, 1963) on Selection Boards and Regional representation p. 319-320; selected by the Selection Board in October, 1960 for Rear Admiral - instead of Faulk, p. 361-2; advises Faulk to drop the issue of Compulsory Church Attendance, p. 388-9; suggested Faulk resign from the Navy, p. 418; Chief of Chaplains summoned by Vice Admiral Semmes, Chief of BuPers - directed to disestablish the Planning Group, p. 420-1; sought retirement (June, 1965), p. 421.

DRINAN, Rev. Robert F.: the 'next friend' of cadet and midshipmen (most of them were minors) in suit on compulsory church attendance, p. 399.

DUKE UNIVERSITY DIVINITY SCHOOL: p. 5-7.

DYER, Chaplain Harold: how he handled an assignment to a duty section, p. 164-7.

ECCLESIASTICAL ENDORSEMENT: p. 34-35.

ELCOMBE: Dr. Arthur: proposed supervisor of the Clinical Training Program, San Diego Naval Hospital, p. 460-1.

ELEVENTH NAVAL DISTRICT - SAN DIEGO: ordered there (1961), p. 363 ff; coordinator of military funerals, p. 364-6; the Reserve Chaplain Program, p. 366; Faulk returns (1966) to post he left in 1964, p. 435; Faulk is a patient at the Naval Hospital, p. 455; addresses letter to Chief of Chaplains on the Naval Chaplain and the ministry to the sick, p. 455-56.

EL TORO - Marine Corps Air Station: Faulk detailed there, p. 227-237; his first duty with the Marines, p. 228; given quarters on the base, p. 229; need for restoring the chapel after a fire, p. 229-230; Faulk tries a Religious Emphasis Week, p. 232; Counseling, p. 232-3.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH: An Anglo-Catholic program, p. 99-100.

ERDMANN, Rear Admiral Wm. L.: ComNav Marianas; p. 339-91; p.

399; FAULK, Chaplain (Captain) Roland W. USN (ret.) Personal data, p. 1 ff; early ambitions for the ministry, p. 2; goes to Centenary College in Shreveport, p. 4; marriage, p. 4-5; Duke Divinity School, p. 5; graduates from Seminary, p. 7; birth of children, p. 8-9; Mrs. Faulk moves to San Diego and puts son in nursing home (1938), p. 21-22; the Faulks adopt a son in Bremerton (1992), p. 78; p. 81; p. 121-2; p. 159; p. 162; death of the son in San Diego, p. 198; in Boston (1996) after duty on the MISSOURI and awaiting reassignment, p. 221-222; p. 228; Mrs. Faulk (1951) leaves Newport to be with her ailing mother, p. 257; ideal living quarters assigned at Bainbridge, p. 259; Mrs. Faulk and son return from London (Sept. 1959) on the SS UNITED STATES, p. 302; life in Charleston - son Mike in Porter Military academy, p. 317; family illness complicates the move from Charleston to job as Fleet Chaplain (1957), p. 321-1; son in Punahou School in Honolulu - graduates in 1960, p. 324; Chief of Chaplains tells Faulk (1960) he is to be ordered back to Washington - but Faulk is not selected by the October Board and arrangement falls through, p. 361-2; Son Mike leaves the Citadel - enters the Air Force, p. 363; Faulk retires on Feb 29, 1968 and the next day takes job as Executive Director of the San Diego County Council of Churches, p. 404-5.

FAY, The Hon. Paul B.: Under Secretary of the Navy - replies to Faulk and advises that a committee has been established to study issue of compulsory Church attendance, p. 392.

FITCH, Chaplain Robert: assigned as Chaplain at WAVE barracks in Washington, p. 116-7.

FITZGERALD, Chaplain Jim: p. 121.

FLEET CHAPLAIN - Pacific Fleet: Faulk named (1957), p. 317 ff; arrives in Honolulu, p. 320; scope of the job, p. 323; first trip to the Far East as Fleet Chaplain, p. 324-6; the Chapel at Makalapa, p. 327-9; Faulk secures the privilege of sitting in on staff conferences, p. 345-6; after his second tour of the Far East Faulk submits a report to Admiral Hopwood on moral conduct, etc., p. 347-9; Faulk raises a question about the security of classified activities because of naval personnel 'shacking up' with foreign nationals, p. 354-5; Faulk's role on the staff of the Commander, Service Force, Pacific, p. 353 ff; p. 356-7; the circuit-riding chaplaincy, p. 357 ff; the Taiwan Command and Navy Chaplains, p. 359-60; Faulk detached (Dec. 1960) and proceeds to the 11th Naval District, San Diego, p. 363.

FRASER, Chaplain John Brown: first Chief of Chaplains - appointed by Secretary Daniels, p. 173.

FREEMAN, Vice Admiral C. S. (Red Mike): Commandant, Bremerton
Navy Yard (1941), p. 74; after Pearl Harbor attack becomes Commandant of the 13th Naval District, p. 76.

FUNERALS: See entries - Chief of Chaplains, also, p. 364-6.

GALLERY, Rear Admiral Dan V.: staff aviator on the BB IDAHO, p.
23; p. 26.

GARRET, Chaplain Frank: Chief of Chaplains - requests that his office be placed under immediate jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Navy, p. 183 ff.; As Chief, answered letter of Faulk about the Compulsory Church Attendance case, p.
410-412; discontinues Clinical Training Program at San Diego
Naval Hospital, p. 463.

GAYLOR, Admiral Noel: p. 338-9.

GERHART, Chaplain Luther: Senior Chaplain at the Naval Training Center in San Diego (1946), p. 222-3; p. 226-7.

GREECE: The MISSOURI anchors in the port of Athens - details of the visit there, p. 208-9.

GRIFFIN, Admiral C. D.: p. 326.

GUANTANAMO: Faulk and the problem of Caimanera, p. 58-61; Faulk sent to Gitmo (1949) as Senior Chaplain, p. 244 ff; description of the Naval Base (1949), p. 246-8.

HACHERL, Chaplain Charles: he and Faulk first two navy chaplains called in August 1937, p. 11; p. 14-16; duty on the USS COLORADO, p. 21.

HALSEY, Fleet Admiral Wm.: p. 123; scooping Admiral Halsey on the change in surrender ceremony, p. 131; his reported attitude towards use of the atomic bomb, p. 140-1; moves his flag to the SOUTH DAKOTA after the surrender - p. 157.

HARP, Chaplain Edward (Eddie): Chief of Chaplains after Chaplain Salisbury, p. 268; asks about a solution to the R.C. Chaplain problem in London, p. 296-7; makes a tour of European commands, p. 297 ff; visits the 6th fleet, p. 298; fails to tell Faulk that he is being relieved by a R.C. chaplain in London, p. 298; Faulk writes him in indignation, p. 299-300; during course of European tour Faulk had said he wanted to stay in London for the three year tour and Harp had given verbal approval, p. 300; p. 303-4.

HEMPHILL, Chaplain Ed: joins Faulk and MacInnes on the Planning Group (1964), p. 417.

HILLENKOETTER, Captain Roscoe: p. 96; becomes skipper of the MISSOURI after Murray, p. 164; p. 195-6; p. 210; in command of the 3rd Naval District (1955), p. 287.

HOMOSEXUALITY: The problems involved for the Navy - Faulk's staff at Bainbridge, p. 273-7.

HOPWOOD, Admiral Harry: Becomes CincPac Flt. under Adm. Stump, p. 322; his objection to the transfer of the Leadership Team at Pearl Harbor to the authority of BuPers, p. 336-7.

USS IDAHO - BB: Faulk transferred from SARATOGA Tor duty on IDAHO, p. 21-22; gentle hazing of the new chaplain, p. 23-4; Faulk resents some of extraneous duties assigned the chaplain, p. 25-6; the Christmas party (1937), p. 26; Faulk learns the importance of counseling in the work of a chaplain, p. 26; p. 39-40; p. 382.

IRVINE, Radm Donald G.: Assistant Chief, BuPers for Education and Training - takes action when told by Captain Thomas that Faulk and Jones planned to push higher with compulsory attendance issue, p. 387-8.

ITALY: BB MISSOURI visits Naples, p. 209; O'Connor arranges three visits for personnel with Pope Pius XII, p. 209-210.

JACOBS, Rear Admiral Randall: Chief of Naval Personnel in World War II - would not interfere with the jurisdiction of the Chief of Chaplains, p. 21.

JAPANESE SURRENDER: preliminaries, p. 130-135; p. 142; Faulk on religious reactions to the news that hostilities were over, p. 142-4; plans for the ceremony, p. 144-5; the table used for the signing, p. 146; the deck arrangements - the prayer, p. 147-150; the signatories, p. 150-1; the fly-over, p. 153-4; the significance of flags at the ceremony, p. 154-5; Faulk in retrospect, p. 156.

JONES, Chaplain Glyn: p. 180-1; persuaded Chief of Chaplains to submit an Annual Report to Sec Nav, p. 180; p. 187; his ill health sends him to hospital in San Diego (1962), p. 379; p. 386; as senior chaplain at N.T.C., San Diego - he works with Faulk, p. 379-80; p. 387; p. 397; invited to serve (1965) on President's special committee on the military draft, p. 398; meets John Pemberton of the ACLU, p. 398; interests Pemberton in the question of compulsory chapel attendance, p. 398.

KAMIKAZE: Japanese use the newest weapon at Okinawa, p. 126 ff; p. 136-8.

KAPLAN, Warren: ACLU attorney in compulsory church attendance case, p. 400; his letter after conclusion of case - All Interested Parties, p. 402-6.

KELLY, Chaplain James (Jim): selected to head the Character Education study at Bainbridge, p. 266; p. 284; comments on the material developed for the Character Education Program, p. 284-5; accompanies Chief of Chaplains Harp on his European tour (1953), p. 297; kept diary of European trip - noted that Chief of Chaplains had given verbal approval for a three year tour in London for Faulk, p. 300; defends Faulk in office of Chief of Chaplains, p. 303; p. 318; p. 332; comes to Pearl Harbor as head of the leadership team to emphasize the Moral Leadership Program of the Navy, p. 334-5; As Deputy Chief of Chaplains, apparently prepares answers to Faulk's letter to Sec Nav and Sec Def on Compulsory Chapel Attendance, p. 393-5; obtains a reprieve for the Planning Group after Chief of BuPers had asked for abolishment, p. 421; becomes Chief of Chaplains after Dreith, July 1965, p. 421; asks Faulk to stay on in Planning Group - Faulk asks (for reasons of seniority) to move out of Washington - goes to N.A.S. Jacksonville, p. 424-5; transfers Faulk from N.A.S. Jacksonville to 11th Naval District, p. 434; Faulk addresses a letter to him about the Navy Chaplain and the Ministry to the sick, p. 455 - 457; Faulk counsels Chaplain Capers in forcing hand of Chaplain Kelly on the Clinical Training Program, p. 460-1;

LAMBERT, V.J.: Assistant Chief of Staff for Logistics on Adm. Hopwood's staff - takes over running the Sunday School at Makalapa Chapel, p. 328.

LAY LEADERS: p. 101-3.

LEADERSHIP TEAMS: p. 333-5; Hopwood refuses to permit the Pearl Harbor Leadership Team to be put under aegis of BuPers, p. 336; see also - entry under MORAL LEADERSHIP PROGRAM.

LONDON: England: Faulk sent there in 1953 as Senior Chaplain, p. 286 ff; the scope of the Chaplain's activities, p. 287-8; dealing with the problems deriving from U.S. servicemen marrying nationals of European countries, p. 289-90; the problem with the English R.C. priest who wanted certain privileges of the U.S. Chaplain, p. 294-6; Faulk's suggested solution to the Chief of Chaplains, p. 296-7; Harp sends letter with notice of relief for Faulk but does not mention the fact during his twenty day tour with Faulk of European Commands, p. 298-300; Faulk attends a NATO conference in Denmark, p. 301-2; Faulk departs from London post in Sept. 1954, p. 302.

LOOMIS, Rear Admiral Almon Ellsworth: p. 389; refuses to sign the letter from the four Chaplains to SecNav on Compulsory Church Attendance, p. 391; places negative endorsement on succeeding letter of Chaplain Faulk to SecNav, p. 391-2.

MacARTHUR, General Douglas: arranged with President Truman the date and place of the Japanese surrender ceremony, p. 130-131; p. 148; his remarks at the Surrender Ceremony, p. 150-2; use of pens in signing, p. 152-3.

MacINNES, Chaplain J. Michael: one of three noted chaplains with CincNelm in Naples (1953), p. 291; joins Faulk on Planning Group in Washington (1964), p. 394.

MANNION, Chaplain Joe: Deputy Chief of Chaplains (1953) - accompanies Chaplain Harp on European tour, p. 297; p. 300.

MAXIMUS V: Patriarch of Eastern Catholicism - Faulk visits him in Istanbul (1946), p. 205.

McCOY, Rear Admiral Melvyn H.: Communications Officer, District Office, Cavite - tennis partner of Faulk, p. 68; imprisoned by the Japanese - escapes, turns up in Washington (1943), p. 68-9.

McINTYRE, Reverend Carl: p. 95.

McLEOD, Chaplain Robert: takes over the V-12 program, p. 112.

McROTH, Captain: in command at N.A.S. Jacksonville - Faulk as Chaplain is senior to him, p. 426; p. 431.

MEEHAN, Chaplain Dan: in 1953 given award for the "Chaplain of the Year," p. 286-7; too young for assignment as Fleet Chaplain, Atlantic, p. 385.

MILITARY CHAPLAINCY - HISTORY OF: p. 30 ff; p. 172-5; see also entries under: NAVAL CHAPLAINCY, CHAPLAIN'S CORPS, MISSION OF THE CHAPLAIN, CHIEF OF CHAPLAINS - STATUS; CHAPLAINCY - ATTITUDE OF THE CHURCHES TOWARDS, ETC.

MILITARY CHAPLAINCY - STATUS: Navy vs Army vs Air Force, p. 167-170; the horns of the dilemma as Faulk sees it, p. 177-180; Chaplain Frank Garret initiates action to put his office under SecNav, p. 183 ff; attitude of the churches towards the military chaplaincy, p. 438 ff; statement of Reinhold Niebuhr which Faulk applied to the chaplaincy, p. 439; the priestly role and the prophetic role, p. 440-1; a discourse on the churches and the military, p. 442 ff.

MINISTRY TO THE SICK: The Clinical Training Program at San Diego, p. 455-8.

MISSION OF THE CHAPLAIN: a basic question in dealing with the status of the military chaplain, p. 35-6; development of Faulk's sense of mission, p. 38-39; p. 85; p. 100-101; attempts to assign chaplain to "duty sections" - illustration of Chaplain Harold Dyer, p. 164-5; post war efforts in the Army Chaplaincy and elsewhere to update the mission, p. 169-71; discussion of pending legislation (1974) to place the Chief of Chaplains (Navy) under SecNav, p. 180 ff; the chaplain and the question of alcoholic beverages, p. 216-221; the Marines' concept of a chaplain and his duties, p. 230-1.

USS MISSOURI - BB: worship on board before Okinawa invasion, p. 48; Faulk ordered from BB NEW JERSEY to BB MISSOURI as Senior Chaplain, p. 123; bombardment of shore installations at Okinawa on Easter, 1945, p. 25-6; a kamikaze attack on the MISSOURI, p. 126-7; a military funeral for the Japanese pilot, p. 127; BB's bomb factories and land targets in Honshu, p. 128-9; practice of evening prayers over the loud speaker system, p. 129; the Chaplain as a newscaster, p. 129-130; the MISSOURI and the surrender, p. 131 ff; Halsey moves flag to the BB SOUTH DAKOTA and the MISSOURI heads for home, p. 157; the journey home, p. 158-9; reception in New York, p. 159; refit and a shakedown cruise to the Caribbean, p. 162 ff; pilfering in the Brooklyn Navy Yard, p. 163; Hillenkoetter takes over from Murray as skipper, p. 164; the silver plaque for the deck - the trip to Flat River, Missouri, p. 194-6; refresher training at Guantanamo, p. 199-200; visit to Turkey, p. 201-8; Faulk and the story of certain preparations in Istanbul for arrival of the MISSOURI and her crew, p. 204-5; Greece, p. 208-9; Italy, p. 209-10; Algiers, p. 210-13; Tangiers, p. 213-14; more showboating in the U.S., p. 214-15.

MORAL LEADERSHIP: p. 285; p. 332-3; the leadership teams, p. 333
See also entries under CHARACTER EDUCATION.

MURPHY, Vice Admiral Vincent Raphael: Executive Vice President of Navy Relief (1961), p. 373-5.

MURRAY, Admiral George D.: Executive officer of the USS SARATOGA (1937), p. 19.

MURRAY, Admiral S. S. (Sunshine): p. 130; p. 157; followed by Captain Hillenkoetter as skipper of the MISSOURI, p. 164; p. 215.

N.A.S. JACKSONVILLE: Faulk exchanges duty with Chaplain Radcliffe and goes to Jacksonville, p. 425; experiences difficulties in this assignment, p. 426; seniority in a program, p. 426; initiates program to deal with numerous prisoners in the brig, p. 426-7; p. 432-3; the story of the two chapels at Jacksonville, p. 427 ff; Faulk asks Chief of Chaplains to transfer him to 11th Naval District, p. 434.

NAVAL AVIATORS: Faulk sees them as somewhat different from others in the military for chaplain ministrations, p. 17-18.

NAVAL CHAPLAINCY: Faulk explores the possibility - motivated by the birth of a heavily handicapped child - p. 8-10; seven applicants accepted for the Navy (July, 1937) including Faulk, p. 10-11; see also entries under CHAPLAIN'S CORPS; MISSION OF THE CHAPLAIN; CHIEF OP CHAPLAINS, STATUS; CHIEF OF CHAPLAINS; CHURCHES.

NAVAL RESERVE TRAINING CENTERS: Faulk advocates chaplains be placed on pay status in Training Centers - idea sponsored by the Commander, 6th Naval District and by the Chief of Chaplains - becomes established practice, p. 308-310.

NAVAL TRAINING CENTER - BAINBRIDGE: Korean war occasion for reordering of the training program, p. 254-5; program at Bainbridge, p. 256 ff; work with the resident psychiatrist in effort to counsel recruits who were to be discharged, p. 272; problem with homosexuals, p. 273-7; Faulk's good relationship with, the various commands at Bainbridge, p. 278-9; the Brigade Commander and his method of imposing discipline, p. 279-82.

NAVAL TRAINING CENTER - SAN DIEGO: Faulk assigned there in 1946, p. 222-27; he begins a lecture series for the students, p. 223-4.

NAVY CHAPLAINS SCHOOL: p. 107-10; Faulk serves for six months as Executive Officer at the school, p. 112-3; policy of treating new recruits to the Corps, 113-14; p. 115; p. 120-21.

NAVY RELIEF SOCIETY: p. 27; Faulk becomes Secretary-Treasurer at Cavite, p. 42; p. 44-5; Faulk's difficulty with Navy Relief at Bremerton (1941-2), p. 76-77; the Chaplains Corps and Navy Relief, p. 370 ff; the situation at the N.A.S. Miramar, p. 371 ff; history of Navy Relief, p. 372-3; the granting of permission for a paid Executive Secretary of Navy Relief at Miramar, p. 374-5; Faulk's theory about the power of Navy Relief in Washington, p. 376-7; Faulk's belief that Navy Relief could improve its services by bringing in welfare training staff members, p. 377-8; Faulk disagrees with Capt. McRoth on a Navy Relief campaign - is over-ruled, p. 431.

USS NEW JERSEY - BB: Chapel attendance on board, p. 47-8; Faulk ordered (Nov. 1944) to her as Chaplain - the plans of Fleet Chaplain John Moore at Hawaii for Faulk's change of duty, p. 122-3; the first bombing raids on Tokyo, p. 124.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.: Faulk's second assignment - a decaying church in the ghetto area, p. 7-8; the beginning of a new church in a new area, p. 8.

NEYMAN, Chaplain C. A. (Clint); Faulk succeeds him at Cavite, p. 41; p. 54; p. 95; p. 107; p. 113; p. 121.

NIEBUHR, Reinhold: his statement and its application by Faulk to the chaplaincy, p. 439.

NIMITZ, Fleet Admiral Chester W.: p. 97; p. 148.

OAKDALE, LA.: Faulk goes there for parish assignment from New Orleans, p. 8.

O'CONNOR, Chaplain John: took over from Kelly as the Character Education specialist at headquarters - changes the emphasis of the Moral Leadership Program, p. 332-3; works with a line officer in developing the program, p. 335; p. 337.

O'CONNOR, Chaplain Paul: R.C. chaplain on the BB MISSOURI (1945-6), p. 197; accompanies Faulk on visit to His Holiness Maximus V in Istanbul, p. 205-6; p. 208.

OKINAWA: Battle for, p. 125-8; p. 138; p. 141.

OLONGAPO, Philippine Islands: p. 327.

ONI (Office of Naval Intelligence): p.106-7.

PEMBERTON, John: Executive Secretary, American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) - shows strong interest in issue of compulsory church attendance as presented to him by Glyn Jones, p. 398.

PG SCHOOL: Faulk chooses Union Seminary in New York - a year of study (1948), p. 238; courses to improve his techniques in counseling, p. 239-40, PERCIVAL, General Sir Archibald: MacArthur invites him to the surrender ceremony on the deck of the MISSOURI, p. 152.

PHILLIPS, Admiral Wm. K. (Sol): in command, Guantanamo Naval Base (1949), p. 246; p. 250-3.

SS PRESIDENT PIERCE: Faulk sails from Manila (Sept. 1941) via

Hong Kong and Shanghai, p. 70-72.

PRINCE KONOYE - Japanese Prime Minister: p. 73.

QUOTA SYSTEMS: p. 98-99.

RADCLIFFE, Chaplain Bob: moves from N.A.S. at Jacksonville to Washington office, p. 425.

RAFFERTY, Chaplain Wm. II.: Assistant to Chaplain Workman (1942), p. 82; p. 94; p. 106; becomes Commanding Officer of the Chaplain's School (1944), p. 113.

RAMSEY, Vice Admiral Paul H.: Chief of Staff to Admiral Hopwood as CincPacFlt., p. 346-7.

RED CROSS - the American National Red Cross: example of assistance it gave the chaplain with a difficult problem, p. 27-8; role in World War II, p. 86.

RESEARCH AND PLANNING GROUP - Office of Chief of Chaplains: Faulk informed he would be transferred from San Diego to Washington, p. 393; arrives Washington May, 1964 - faced task of reestablishing the Planning Group, p. 394 ff; Faulk and others instigate a survey of Chaplains for opinions on issues, p. 418-9; asks them to by-pass the chain of command, p. 420; Admiral Semmes orders disestablishment of Planning Group, p. 421; Kelly, who succeeds Dreith in July, 1965, obtains a reprieve, p. 421; Faulk completes a staff study on the status of Chief of Chaplains, p. 422-3; Faulk completes study on the fitness report system, p. 423-4.

RESERVE CHAPLAIN PROGRAM - San Diego: p. 366-7.

RICE, Dr. Otis: taught counseling at Union Seminary (1948-9) -
Chaplain at St. Luke's Hospital in New York, p. 240-1.

ROBINSON, Chaplain Charles - S.J.: Catholic Chaplain on the MISSOURI, p. 123; accompanies Comdr. Harold Stassen on landing expedition at Yokosuka - goes on to Tokyo with relief supplies for Jesuit House there, p. 133.

ROCHELLE, LA.: Faulk's first parish assignment, p. 7

ROOSEVELT, President Franklin D.: review of the fleet in San Francisco, p. 39.

ROOSEVELT, President Theodore: p. 33.

ROSSO, Chaplain George A.: p. 341; as Chief of Chaplains he tells Faulk that he is to be ordered to Washington (1960 - but Faulk is not selected for Rear Admiral and plans fall through, p. 361-2; concurs with Chaplain Dreith in asking Faulk to drop issue of Compulsory Church attendance, p. 389.

SALISBURY, Chaplain S.W.: becomes Chief of Chaplains (1950), p.
104; relieves Chaplain Rafferty as assistant to Chaplain Workman, p. 107; his policy for dealing with new recruits to the Chaplaincy School, p. 113-4; p. 15 8; p. 187; succeeds Chaplain Will Thomas as Chief of Chaplains, p. 243; p. 245;
p. 254; gives approval for a research program to develop curriculum for Character Education Program at Bainbridge, p.
265 ff; p. 268; p. 286; p. 385.

USS SARATOGA - CV: Faulk and Hacherl spend a month on the USS SARATOGA as a part of training, p. 16 ff.

SCHWYHART, Chaplain Robert (Bob): p. 320; Faulk relieves him as fleet chaplain, p. 321; originator of the Circuit-Riding Chaplaincy of the Service Force, Pacific, p. 357.

SELECTION BOARDS: East/West representation - argument for in letter from Faulk to Chaplain Dreith, p. 318-320.

SEMMESE, Vice Admiral B. J., Jr.: Chief of Bureau of Personnel - orders Chief of Chaplains Dreith to disestablish the Planning Group of which Faulk is the head, p. 420-1.

SERVICE FORCE - PACIFIC: Faulk's role on that staff, p. 353 ff; the circuit riding chaplaincy, p. 357; the circuit riding chaplaincy expanded to apply to the West Coast of the US, p. 358.

SHAW, Mrs. Emma: Secretary in the Eleventh District Chaplain's Office, p. 364.

SHEEDY, Chaplain (Fr.) Maurice: senior chaplain at Jacksonville in World War II - friend of FDR, p. 428.

SHERRILL, Bishop Henry Knox: interest in the wartime chaplaincy, p. 87; interceded with Secretary Knox for the V-12 program, p. 90-1.

SHIGEMITSU: Japanese Foreign Minister who signed at the surrender ceremony on the deck of the MISSOURI, p. 152.

SHOUP, General Dave, USMC: Marine Corps General on Okinawa

(1957), p. 325.

SIXTEENTH NAVAL DISTRICT - Philippines: Faulk (1939) assigned to duty in Cavite, p. 40; he succeeds Chaplain Neyman - duties on the station, p. 41 ff; people in attendance at the Chapel, p. 46-7; other regular services, p. 49-50; the station paper - BAMBOO BREEZES, p. 41; p. 50-1; evacuation of families (1940) from the Asiatic Command, p. 52-3; cooperation with the shore patrol, p. 55-6; loss of morale when families left, p. 57-58; the medical problems, p. 59 ff; the elementary school at Cavite, p. 62-3; chaplain on the Board of the YMCA in Manila, p. 65-6; Faulk's tour of duty ended (1941) - sails on Sept. 20, 1941 - Dave Quinn his relief - Quinn did not survive, p. 70.

SIXTH FLEET: p. 287-8; the "three wise men" of the 6th Fleet Chaplain's Corps, p. 290-1.

SIXTH NAVAL DISTRICT - Charleston: Faulk ordered from London to Charleston, p. 300; relieves Chaplain Alva O. Martin, p. 304; scope of the Chaplains' job, p. 304-5; was the Naval Reserve Program officer in the District, p. 306-7; Faulk advocates a pay status for Chaplains in the Reserve Training Centers, p. 308-10; Faulk and the WAVES in Charleston, p. 311-13; visits to seminaries, p. 314-5.

SMEDBERG, Vice Admiral Wm. R., III: Chief of Naval Personnel (1961), p. 374; when he retired he became Executive Secretary of Navy Relief, p. 375.

SMITH, Captain Robert Hall: in Command of the Training Center at Bainbridge, p. 258.

SMOOT, Vice Admiral Roland N.: Taiwan Defense Command, p. 359-60.

SPRING, Rear Admiral Arthur F.: Executive Officer on board the MISSOURI (1945-6), p. 195; p. 198; p. 200-1.

SPRUANCE, Admiral Raymond: p. 125; Faulk has opportunity to meet him on the BB NEW MEXICO off Okinawa, p. 127; was not at Japanese surrender ceremonies in the MISSOURI - held at Pearl Harbor in case of Japanese act of treachery, p. 134-5.

STEINBECK, Captain John: Assistant Chief of Staff for Administration in London, p. 299; p. 301.

STUMP, Admiral Felix: CincPac (1957) - p. 321-2; p. 345.

SULLIVAN, Chaplain Frank: p. 121.

TAFFINDER, Vice Admiral Sherwoode A.: relieves Admiral Freeman at Bremerton, p. 76; p. 79-80.

TANGIERS: Visit of BB MISSOURI, p. 213-14.

THOMAS, Captain D. I.: N.T.S. Commander, San Diego - initiates requests of Faulk and Jones for modification of compulsory attendance rule, p. 387-8.

THOMAS, Chaplain Will: Chief of Chaplains - failed to testify at hearings on proviso to put the Chief in the Bureau of Naval Personnel, p. 174-5; p. 220; p. 227; p. 243; p. 382.

TOME SCHOOL: sold to the Navy for the Bainbridge Training Center, p. 259.

TOWER, Chaplain Hansel: succeeded by Faulk in London (1953), p. 287.

TOWERS, Admiral John (Jack): Skipper of the SARATOGA - 1937, p. 16; p. 18.

TRUITT, Chaplain Razzie: p. 100.

TRUMAN, President Harry S.: comes aboard the MISSOURI in New York harbor, p. 160; his nephew was a signalman on the bridge - complained about the food on board and the President interceded, p. 161.

TRUMP, Chaplain Herbert (Herb): Chaplain to the Fourth Marines in Shanghai - taken captive by the Japanese on Corregidor - dies in captivity, p. 71-2.

TURKEY: Faulk visits Istanbul on board the BB MISSOURI, p. 201-208; some preparations for the visit of the MISSOURI to Istanbul, p. 204-5.

UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY: Faulk goes there for two semesters in 1948-9, p. 237 ff; courses and instructors, p. 240-3; value of the chapel and the daily services, p. 243.

V-12 PROGRAM: A chaplaincy training program of World War II, p. 88 ff; p. 103-104; Chaplain Robert McLeod takes over the V-12 program, p. 112.

van DEUSEN, Dr. Henry Pitt: President of Union Seminary - intercedes with SecNav for the V-12 program, p. 90-91.

VENEREAL DISEASE: fleet policy, p. 58-61.

VIETNAM: p. 351-2; p. 368-70; Faulk's concern about our involvement and his reasons, p. 435 ff.

WAINWRIGHT, General Jonathan M.: MacArthur invites him to the surrender ceremony, p. 152.

WALSH, Senator David I.: p. 94-96.

WAVES: a Wave officer brought into Chief of Chaplain's office, p. 112; p. 115-7; Faulk and the WAVES in Charleston, p. 311-13; his recommendation for matrons in the WAVE barracks, p. 313-14.

WEDDINGS: A pleasant duty for the office of the Chief of Chaplains, p. 119-20.

WOOD, General Louis: Wing Commander at Marine Corps Air Station, p. 233-5; his action on behalf of the White Russian woman and the immigration authorities, p. 234-5.

WORKMAN, Chaplain Robert (Bob): Chief of Chaplains, July 1, 1937, p. 10; his insistence upon the maintenance of educational standards for the Chaplaincy, p. 19-20; p. 74; orders Faulk from difficult spot in Bremerton to his office in Washington (Sept. 1942), p. 78; insists Chaplain Joe Camerman is fit for duty at Bremerton, p. 79; Faulk works for him in Washington, p. 81-2; his further insistence on standards, p. 84; instigates the V-12 program for wartime training of Chaplains, p. 88-9; threatens to cancel V-12 program because of stern opposition of church press; Secretary Knox orders the program continued, p. 91; Workman and the Sacramental wine, p. 93-4; his struggle with the Independent Fundamentalists and quotas, p. 94 ff; after opposition from the Navy and others the Congress enacted legislation elevating the Chief of Chaplains to rank of Rear Admiral, p. 95 ff; p. 100; p. 105-6.

WUEBBENS, Chaplain Everett: relieves Faulk (1944) in office of the Chief of Chaplains, p. 112; p. 215.

